HISTORY OF INVESTIGATION: The R/Det. was assigned to this investigation by Sgt. Kuhn of this command and responded to the scene at 5615 W. Madison St.

R/Det spoke with P.O. Gilger the paper car who gave the following information.
The Holsum bread truck VEH#1 was observed double parked at 5611 W. Madison St. facing eastbound. Parked next to Veh #1. at the curb was Veh #2. the drivers side middle window was shattered with glass in the street next to Veh #2. Veh#3 was then observed parked at the curb at approx. 5625 W. Madison Veh#3s windshield was observed with an apparent gun-shot to the center midline. Examination of the windshield indicated that the bullet did not penetrate and appeared to deflect up from the windshield.
No bullet was found near Veh#3. Photos of Veh#3 were taken.

At 5615 W. Madison a pool of blood was observed on the sidewalk about midway between the curb and the Discount Liquors Store. The victim was removed by CFD Ambulance #23 and transported to Mt. Sinai, and pronounced Dead at 1409 Hrs.

The driver of the bread truck COOPER Edward was located at 5657 W. Washington Blvd. in the company of the 15th Dist tactical team.
COOPER had directed them to this abandoned building saying he followed the offenders who had robbed him to this location. MB4936 P.O. Balzano 10528 & Leavy 17294 canine unit searched this building with neg. results. COOPER was advised of his rights via a preprinted card by Det. Fleming and stated after hearing each of his rights stated he understood his rights and agreed to be interviewed. The following is a summary but not verbatim the statement of COOPER Edward.

PERMANENT RETENTION FILE

COOPER Edward

Stated that he had just made a delivery at Uncle Remis's restaurant at 5611 W. Madison St and had double parked his holsum bread truck at this location. While standing in his step van he was approached by a friend of his FRIEND Sheene who stepped in to the van to talk. At this time he was approached by the offenders who displayed handguns and told him "GIVE ME YOUR MONEY, ITS NOT YOURS IT BELONGS TO THE COMPANY, YOU DONT WANT TO GET KILLED FOR THE COMPANY MONEY" At this time he gave them approx $30.00 from his left pants pocket. Offender #1 then searched him and took approx. $300.00 from his right pants pocket. He stated that FRIEND then ran from the truck and the offenders also ran. He stated that he then ran after the offenders who were shooting at him. While chasing the offenders he met a cousin ROGERS Terry who told him to be careful as he knows them and they will shoot him. He goes on to say that ROGERS told him that he will help COOPER find the offenders later. COOPER and ROGERS observed the offenders enter the building at 5657 W. Washington Blvd. they then returned to the scene and directed the police back to 5657 W. Washington Blvd. COOPER denied having a gun and agreed to a GSR test at area 5 V/Cs. The test samples were obtained by Crime Lab personnel.

FRIEND Sheene

Stated in summary but not verbatim that she was washing her cloths in the laundromat at 5640 W. Madison and observed COOPER in his bread truck. She needed 3 dollars to purchase bleach and was talking to COOPER just inside his step van. She gave the same account of the offenders entering the van and robbing COOPER. She stated she heard approx. 6 shots and felt that it was CROSS FIRE between the offenders and COOPER. She stated that she observed COOPER and ROGERS running after the robbery offenders and heard shots but did not see COOPER with a gun. She states she can identify the offenders if she sees them again and agreed to view photos in area 5 V/Cs.

Det. Salvi of this command proceeded to Mt. Sinai Hospital and observed the above listed GSW Wound clothing description of SORRELL Dr. De Urrita stated the victim was pronounced at 1409Hrs. The residence of SORRELL was visited by Dets. Lipsey and Jack of this command but they were unable to locate next of kin as of this report.

Upon further questioning and after being advise of his rights again by Det. Fleming stated that he was on probation for possession of Cocaine and was worried about losing his job, but now wanted to tell the truth. He stated in summary but not verbatim that he did have a 38 cal revolver crome in color which he carried in his bread truck for protection. After the robbery he exited his truck with his gun and one of the offenders fired at him. He fired at the offenders while standin next to his truck. He then went to the rear of his truck and fired 2 more shots at the offender who was running westbound in the middle of Madison St.

He then ran after the offenders Northbound on Parkside and fired 1 or 2 more shots at the offenders on Parkside Just North of Madison St.

He is not sure but feels that he did not hit the offenders with any of his shots. He was not aware that he hit VEH#3s windshield. He stated that he last saw the offenders near the building at Washington and Parkside and felt that they ran into the building at 5657 W. Washington. On his way back he put his gun under a bag between two dumpster in the alley at approx. 5680 W. Madison and told a M/B approx age 50 known to him as WILLIE who is a employee of GOLD STAR FOODS at 5680 W. Madison St. to get the gun and hold it for him. he stated that WILLIE told him he would get the gun and hold it for him at the store. He stated that he does not know anything more about WILLIE but will accompany the R/Det. on 22 Dec 90 and locate WILLIE at GOLD STAR FOODS and attempt to recover his handgun.

WADE Emmett

Stated in summary but not verbatim that he was seated in his white van (VEH#3) and observe the bread truck driver involved in a shoot-out with two unknown M/Bs. He stated that approx 6 or 7 shots were fired and he maybe able to identify the two unknown m/Bs if seen again. He stated that he was seated in his van and a bullet fired by the bread truck driver (COOPER) hit his windshield. He also identified FRIEND Sheene as being present during part of the shooting. He was not sure if the two men being chased by COOPER were both armed but at least one had a gun.

ROGERS Terry

Stated he was standing in a door-way at 5611 W. Madison and observed his Cousin COOPER exiting uncle Remis's restaurant at 5611 W.

Madison. He exchanged a few words with COOPER and then COOPER returned to his truck. He then looked away and a few minutes later he saw the two offenders exit COOPERS truck in a "hurry". He then heard shots and knew that something had went down in COOPER'S truck. He then ran behind COOPER who was running after the two offenders. He feels that COOPER fired about 4 shots at the tow men. He stated that he got a look at one of the men and remembers seeing him in the area of Parkside and Madison off and on for the past month. He stated that the man is a narcotic user. While they were running he heard one of the men call the other to hurry up and he called him by the name FLETCHER. ROGERS viewed photos in area 5 V/Cs with Neg results. He stated that COOPER had a crome handgun but when they got to Parkside and Washington he did not go back to the scene with COOPER and therefore does not know what COOPER did with his gun. He stated that he can identify at least one of the offenders if seen again.

This investigation continues.....
